VII. Reports

A. Staff Reports

Mike Hoffmeister:

- 1) Loonfeather Park update: Not quite done. There is a walk-through scheduled for Thursday 12/9 to review work. Change order was submitted for 2 tree removals due to path ADA compliance laws but overall, the project is under budget. There is additional asphalt work that needs to be done but it is covered by the vendor.
- 2) Huron Street pathway bid will be going out soon.
- 3) AppleRidge -West Willow update: Contingent on attorney review but should be ready to submit to board for approval. Construction still slated for early 2022.
- 4) Building closed Dec 22 thru Jan 3.
- 5) Winter Operations for parks: only two remain open - Heritage (due to popularity) and Ford Lake (required, as federal funds were used.)
- 6) Carly Willis, Clerk in Residential Services, retiring Dec. 22.

DISCUSSION: Tree removal in Ford Heritage Park due to dead trees imposing on homes on Cary Dr.

Angela Verges:

- 1) Several bird-watching groups are interested in holding events at local parks.
- 2) New recreation director Josh Kruegler just started and will attend future meetings.
- 3) Citizens starting to ask about rentals. Group interested in car show approached David Streeter
- 4) Angie retiring Dec 22.
